

NOTICE OF NONRESPONSIBILITY

Jan. 1, 2008

This notice is hereby posted with regard to "Roadway Repair" performed by a now defunct company formerly operating in Lake County, Illinois under the name of Woodfield Paving, D/B/A M1 Construction. Based on information and belief, Woodfield Paving is no longer in business.

The "Roadway Repair" has been requested by

Edgewood Pond Homeowners Association "EPHA"

and required on sections of the asphalt roadway known as Black Walnut Trail which is a private roadway in the Edgewood Pond subdivision of Long Grove, Illinois.

I, John Spina, President of the EPHA do hereby declare that the services requested by EPHA and directed to Woodfield Paving which began in August, 2007 have not been completed satisfactorily as of the date of this posting, and as a result, property value has been reduced.

Therefore, it is the intent of EPHA and all homeowners and/or assigns residing on Black Walnut Trail to expressly claim no responsibility to any and all (but not limited to) contractors, general contractors, subcontractors, debtors, representatives, vendors, associates and assigns of Woodfield Paving, D/B/A M1 Construction. This notice is posted on the entrance of Black Walnut Trail and is also posted publicly on the website at www.edgewoodpond.net

Signed,

John Spina, President EPHA
